Objective #1: In collaboration with the Developmental Disabilities Network Partners (Developmental Disabilities Council, University of Hawaii Center on Disability Studies, and Hawaii Disability Rights Center), the Hawaii Self-Advocacy Advisory Council will work to provide leadership training, education, skill building, and assistance in helping self-advocates to develop partnerships with other organizations and advocacy groups that represent a range of diverse cultures and disabilities.

Key Activities:

1. The Hawaii Self-Advocacy Advisory Council will complete an advocacy booklet on How to Run Your Own Individual Service Plan and provide a minimum of two peer trainings to the Hawaii Self-Advocacy Advisory Council.
2. The Hawaii Self-Advocacy Advisory Council chapters on each island in Hawaii will choose one "Advocacy in Action" goal and coordinate one activity or event.

Expected Outputs:

1. Six meetings will be held with Hawaii Self-Advocacy Advisory Council and the DD Network to finalize the booklet through peer trainings.
2. At least 6 possible activities or events will be identified to show advocates in action.

Expected Objective Outcomes:

1. At least 1 Individual with IDD from each island participated in the peer trainings and review of the booklet.
2. At least 1 activity or event showing advocates in action occurred on each island

Data Evaluation and Measurement:

1. Face-to-face meetings will be held, and surveys completed by SAAC officers to evaluate the outcome
2. Pictures of the activities or events are posted on the SAAC web page
